Stopping and parking in Karlskrona

Thanks for stopping by. We hope you will have a pleasant stay here in Karlskrona.

On the back of this flyer we have gathered some useful information about stopping and parking. The restrictions for stopping and parking are not always designated by road signs. However, you as a motorist must still be aware of restrictions.

There are also local restrictions for stopping and parking. These regulations are adapted to local conditions and are usually indicated by road signs.

On the backside of this flyer you will find some of the most important regulations.
